SHERIFF IGNORES INJUNCTION

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—State veterinarians, under the protection of Sheriff Griffin of Lake county, today visited the farm of Mrs. Scott Durand and slaughtered her herd of sixty valuable Guernsey cattle which had been afflicted with the foot and mouth disease.

According to Mrs. Durand, the sheriff and his men made certain the destruction of the fancy cattle by first making herself and her servants prisoners in the farm house at the point of rifles and shotguns.

Charges Men Fired at Her.
Talking over the telephone from her farm to a Chicago newspaper Mrs. Durand said: "They even fired at me when I tried to approach the barn."

While she was talking she said she could see from the window the smoke of a rifle shot curling from the barn where the killing was in progress.

"Those murderers! Those anarchists!" she gasped over the telephone. "They have shot my poor animals in defiance of law, in contempt of the injunction. It is the most anarchistic act I ever heard of. They even denied me the right to send for a veterinary surgeon to see that the animals were dispatched in a merciful manner. No, they drove me and my men into the house and when I tried to go to my own barn they fired at me."

Reads Order from Governor.
Before killing the cattle, Sheriff Griffin read to Mrs. Durand an order which he had received from Governor Dunne directing him to uphold the authority of the state veterinarian.

The Durand herd was one of the most valuable in the state and annually was represented by prize winners at the National Dairy Show. At the close of the dairy show last year the foot and mouth disease broke out in Chicago and its vicinity and for months prize cattle valued at more than $1,000,000 were quarantined at the stock yards.

Mrs. Durand's cattle were among these. Several months ago, the disease again broke out in her herd but an injunction was obtained restraining the slaughter of the animals. This injunction was recently dissolved by the supreme court and a second injunction was issued last week by Judge Edwards of Lake county. This injunction was ignored by the sheriff and the state officers who visited the Durand farm today.

Had Not Dissolved Injunction.
Judge Edwards when informed of the killing of the herd, said his injunction had not been dissolved.

"I have not yet decided what will be done," said the judge. "We have just talked with the governor's office and were told that the governor had sent an order to the sheriff directing him to protect the livestock commission in its handling of the Durand cattle."

Counsel for Mrs. Durand said: "The sheriff and the state livestock commission evidently thought the governor's order to the sheriff to 'protect' the livestock commission set aside the court order and gave them the right to do whatever they wanted to. It is a high handed proceeding to say the least." The herd was valued at $60,000 and Mrs. Durand took great pride in it. Recently she claimed the disease had been eradicated.

Sheriff Denies Charge.
Sheriff Griffin denied that Mrs. Durand had been fired upon. She declared, however, she heard bullets whistle by her head and expected to fall any minute.

Mrs. Durand said she heard the sheriff tell State's Attorney Dady that he would obey the governor. "When I heard that I ran out to tell by men to lock the doors of the barn, so the deputies would have to break in," she said. "As I ran I heard the command 'shoot, you fellows, and shoot to kill!'"

"I expected to be riddled with bullets, but while three whizzed by me, none hit me."

"Sheriff Griffin and one of his deputies overtook me. They seized me by the arms and dragged me along as roughly as if I had been a woman of the streets, or an armed criminal."

Held at Point of Revolvers.
They dragged me back to the house and dragged my men after me, four in all. Dr. Stoelcker tried to compel me to sign a statement that I would accept whatever remuneration the state agreed to

EVICION OF CATS CAUSES NEAR RIOT

FELINES MAKE ESCAPE AND TWO
BAILIFFS GIVE CHASE

Five Hundred School Children Join in Pursuit—Officers Are Drenched
With Steam From Garden
Hose and Retreat—Owners Await Return of Cats.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—The fashionable South Side apartment house in which the Misses Anna and Isabella Patton reside, is in the hands of a receiver. That official maintains that the presence of cats in a fashionable apartment house is not conducive to the acquirement of a profitable class of tenants.

It was upon the receiver's showing to this effect that a court order was obtained directing the Misses Patton to file a bond in the sum of $400 to indemnify the owners of the premises against loss by reason of the presence in the Patton apartment of Omar, a Persian kitten, and twenty-one other felines, the lot of which is valued at $50,000.

Dispatch Bailiffs to Evict Pets.
But the Misses Patton refused or neglected to furnish the required bond. Then came an order for eviction of the cats, whereupon two stalwart bailiffs were dispatched to evict the spinsters' pets.

One of the bailiffs was armed with a large basket with two lids, one on either side of the handle. The other bailiff carried the writ, duly signed and sealed. This was read to the Misses Patton and Omar, the Persian kitten, was placed in the basket with the two lids. One lid was closed over the feline and the bailiff started to gather in the other cats—the twenty-one.

There had been something of a disturbance at the door before the bailiffs gained entrance. In point of fact the officers had to threaten to break down the door before the Misses Patton would permit them to enter. It may have been that this experience perturbed the bailiff who carried the basket. In any event he failed for a time to observe that Omar had discovered the second lid, crawled to the top of the basket, leaped nimbly to the floor and dashed out thru the open doorway to the street.

Both bailiffs sprang madly after the escaping Persian cats. In their wake came twenty-one other cats, with the spinsters bringing up the rear.

School Children Join in Chase.
In the street were encountered five hundred school children, dismissed for the noon recess, who joined in the chase. Passersby stopped and watched. It was like a screen comedy—only funnier, they decided. Windows along the street opened and heads protruded, some sent in a riot call to the nearest police station. The cats yowled and did everything else runaway cats are supposed to do. The two bailiffs puffed and wheezed and allowed they had no use for cats. Before the police reserves arrived, however, one of the Misses Patton found a garden hose attached to a lawn hydrant. She acted promptly.

Wetter officers of the law never have been seen. These two came from the municipal court of which Anton J. Cermak, secretary of the United Societies, is chief bailiff. They retreated in dripping disorder. The children went back to school. The Misses Patton returned to their apartment, flushed and angry. The police reserves arrived, turned around, and went back to their station, disgruntled at being disturbed during the mid-day siesta.

But, Omar—and the twenty-one other cats. It is said a cat always comes back. The Misses Patton are waiting.

"I was forced to sit in my house and hear them shoot down in their stalls, every one of my beautiful cattle, and not one was sick. They killed thirty-five hogs too, which never had been ill."

AUSTRIAN DIVER SINKS BIG LINER

Land 270 Survivors of Ancona, Some of Them
Wounded, at Bizerta

CAUSES SENSATION

Sinking Is Regarded as Foreshadowing a New Controversy
Between U. S. and Austria

OFFICIALS RESERVE COMMENT

ROME, via Paris, Nov. 9.—The Italian liner Ancona has been sunk by a large submarine lying the Austrian colors. She carried 422 passengers and sixty in the crew. Two hundred and seventy survivors, some of them wounded, have been landed at Bizerta.

Causes Sensation in Washington.

Washington, Nov. 9.—News of the sinking of the Ancona caused a sensation here tonight. It was regarded as foreshadowing a new controversy between the United States and Austria similar to the critical dispute with Germany that followed the torpedoing of the Lusitania. Before making any comment, however, officials awaited information on two points—whether the vessel was torpedoed without warning and whether any Americans were among the victims.

Should it develop that the Ancona was warned and ignored it and attempted to escape, the rules of naval warfare, according to the Washington government's view justified the use of force. If she was attacked without warning, and a case paralleling the Lusitania develops, the attitude of the United States probably will be along the lines already followed with Germany—the despatch of a note demanding disavowal of the act, reparation and assurances that such incidents will not occur in the future.

Terms Sinking "Absolute Murder."

New York, Nov. 9.—The Ancona sailed from New York for Naples on Oct. 17th. She had on board 1,245 Italian reservists and a general cargo. She arrived at Naples on Oct. 29th, and was due to sail from Naples for New York today (Nov. 9).

The Ancona was built at Belfast in 1908. She had a gross tonnage of 8,210 tons, was 482 feet in length and 88 feet beam.

William Hartfield, general manager of the Italian line tonight characterized the sinking of the Ancona as "an unnecessary crime," and "absolute murder." He immediately cabled the Naples office of his firm asking for all information regarding the disaster. Although he had no list of her passengers, Mr. Hartfield said the Ancona on her last few voyages to this country had carried 300 or 400 passengers, among them a number of American citizens.

Most of her passenger list Mr. Hartfield said had been made up of women and children on her present voyage.

The Ancona, he said, carried a crew of 160 men.

At no time, said Mr. Hartfield did the Ancona carry guns or ammunition of war because it was against the rules of the company to carry war munitions on the same vessels with passengers.

The Ancona has been in the Italian line service for six years and without her cargo was valued at more than $1,000,000. She played a prominent part in the rescue of passengers from the Fabre liner Santa Anna in mid-Atlantic last September 12th. She came to the Santa Anna's aid and took off more than 600 passengers.

PERIL OF SERBS INCREASES HOURLY

Bulgarians Extend Their Grip on Belgrade-Saloniki Railway

TEUTONS MAKE PROGRESS

Invading Forces Are Now
Reaching the Most Difficult Part of Serbia

GREEK ATTITUDE UNCHANGED

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Every hour adds to the peril of the Serbian armies which are fighting desperately to hold back the Austro-Germans, pressing them from the north and the Bulgarians, invading their country from the east, until the assistance their allies are sending can reach them.

Extend Grip on Railway.

The Bulgarians have extended their grip on the Belgrade-Saloniki railway north and south of Nish, and have occupied Leskovac, south of the captured capital, and Aleksinac to the north. At the latter point they are in close touch with the German army, which, after occupying Krusavac, extended its left wing as far as Djunis on the left bank of the Bulgar Morava.

The Austro-Germans, advancing southward, are making progress except in the west where they are being held up by the Montenegrins.

The invading forces now are reaching the most difficult part of Serbia, the mountainous region where the natives, knowing every hill and gully can offer the strongest resistance. The Austrians and Germans however, are plentifully supplied with mountain guns, with which they expect to drive the defenders from their fastnesses. In the south the ever-growing strength of the French and British forces is beginning to tell. They are carrying on an energetic offensive against the Bulgars; have managed to keep the railway clear as far as Veles and are barring the Bulgars double to Monastir. While it would be some time before Germans sufficiently can repair the northern end of the railway for the transport of troops and munitions, their successes have enabled them to send supplies to the Bulgarians and Turks by the Danube as far as Nikopolis, from which point they can be sent by rail to Sofia and Constantinople. There is no change in the attitude of Greece, although it is considered significant that at the moment that Bulgaria has again protested against the hospitality accorded the allied troops at Saloniki, the Greek government has applied to the allies for financial assistance—an application which is receiving favorable consideration. The Greek government also has renewed to the allies an expression of its firm determination to maintain neutrality and of its sincere good will toward the entente powers.

No Important Changes.
The campaigns on the other fronts continue without any important changes. The Russians still are attacking in the north and south and are commencing to harass the German forces in the center, which it is believed has weakened for the purpose of strengthening the two wings. No big movement is expected however, until the condition of the ground improves. In both the west and on the Italian front there has been considerable fighting.

DUNNE TO CALL EARLY LEGISLATIVE SESSION

LAWMAKERS WILL CONVENE NOT LATER THAN NOVEMBER 22

Governor Gives Two Reasons Why
Extra Session Is Imperative—
Calls Attention to Large Expense
as Result of Fergus Suits.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9.—In a statement issued tonight Governor Dunne said the members of the legislature had better hold themselves in readiness for an early session, not later than Monday, Nov. 22. The call had not been put into its final form tonight, and may not be issued until next week, it was said.

In his statement Governor Dunne gave two reasons why an extra session was imperative. First, he said, the tax rate levy of the state must be fixed during the month of December. The governor's other reason follows in his own words:

"A large number of officers and employees of the state having been working without compensation for some time past and have been living from hand to mouth with the assistance of money loaners, who have, I fear, taken advantage of their necessities.

In his statement Gov. Dunne calls attention to the large expense to the state as a result of the Fergus injunction suit.

"The only apparent saving accomplished by the Fergus litigation as against the enormous losses are the amounts held by the supreme court to be invalid which were appropriated for legislative committees, the aggregate appropriations for such committees being only $43,422.11," said the governor.

Quoting figures furnished by the legislative reference bureau, the executive declares that the state will have to pay out $527,007 representing items sliced by him, which practice was held unconstitutional by the supreme court.

SATURATES CAT WITH GASOLINE AND APPLIES LIGHTED MATCH

Seven Year Old Curiosity Is Satisfied for One Carpenter's Shop
Is a Heap of Smouldering Ashes.

Appleton, Wis., Nov. 9.—On the outskirts of this city a carpenter had a shop, which generally was littered with shavings from his planes. In the shop also was won't to doze in the sun on a window ledge a large black tom cat. Also in the carpenter shop there came nearly every day to play a seven year old boy, the most striking characteristic of whom is curiosity.

Today the boy found a match. A few minutes later he applied a bottle of gasoline. Then he observed the tom cat. It was not much of a trick to saturate the glossy fur of the cat with the gasoline and apply the match, which he scratched man-fashion. He wanted to see what a cat on fire would do. The carpenter's shop tonight is a heap of smouldering ashes. The seven year old sleeps peacefully. His curiosity, for the once has been satisfied. And the cat * * * * some people say a cat has nine lives.

CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 9.—General Francisco Villa's army tonight is marching eastward from Naco and Villa Verde, Sonora, toward Agua Prieta, the scene of Villa's recent unsuccessful attack on the forces of General P. Elias Calles, the Carranza defender, according to advices here tonight from American farmers on the border west of here. These advices stated that just before dark, a column of troops estimated at several miles in length, passed thru Anivachchi Pass, twelve miles southwest of Agua Prieta, and started eastward.

Defenders Go Into Trenches.

Advices from Naco, Arizona, stated that 7,000 Villa troops between there and Anivachchi Pass late today were engaged with scouting parties sent out from Agua Prieta by General Calles. The Carranza defenders of Agua Prieta tonight wait in the trenches in anticipation of a night attack by Villa. Carranza officials here stated they were informed of Villa's intentions to attack by deserters, 500 of whom were said to have accepted amnesty from Carranza officials since Villa's retirement last week. General Villa himself was expected tonight to arrive at Nogales, Sonora, where yesterday a small body of his troops were said to have deserted.

The time was when the state of Missouri was considered somewhat behind-hand in the matter of public improvements but in these latter days the state has made some remarkable advances. This is especially true on the highways of the state and citizens have joined enthusiastically in this work. In a number of localities bonds have been issued for improvement work. Yesterday in Jefferson City, Mo., at an election for the purpose, the people voted to issue $100,000 in bonds for hard road improvement work.

The prevalence of typhoid fever in a number of Illinois cities again calls to attention the need there is for observing the ordinary and plain rules of living which will make it unlikely that one will contract the disease. In Belleville the situation has been such that an effort has been made to regulate public gatherings and an order has been issued preventing the children under fifteen from attending the moving picture theatres. Seven new cases have recently developed, resulting in this somewhat drastic order.

Newspaper advertising as returning the most for the money expended has been given another impetus by the railroads the past year. It is estimated that during the year the railroads of the United States spent $10,000,000 for advertising and in an address before the Chicago Advertising association Gertrude Port, passenger traffic manager of the Union Pacific, declared that this kind of advertising brought the best results, and that the expenditures were well justified by the returns.

The B. & O. railroad, not content with orders against consumption of liquor by its employees but because of violations, has employed a corps of photographers whose business it has been to watch for railroad employees in saloons. As a result of the pictures there have been several discharges and the new system of gathering evidence promises to be very effective. Even a more radical view on the liquor question is indicated by the order of the chief medical examiner of that railroad, which prohibits whisky being given as first aid to the injured.

According to the statement recently made by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, the past year has been one of the most momentous in the history of the organization. It was a year of extraordinary stress for the labor movement, partially because of prevailing business conditions and it has been gratifying to the labor leaders that the decrease in total membership has not been larger. Some idea of the strength of the organization can be gained from the statement that the membership as shown by the record of September was 1,994,111. The expenditures for the year were $203,985.95.

An East St. Louis judge has recently given a ruling which is of interest to some women. It is in effect that money saved by a wife from an allowance made by her husband becomes her absolute property and cannot be considered as part of his estate.

tate. The case grew out of the fact that following the death of Nelson A. Grote of that city the children of the deceased demanded that the sum of $6,000 on deposit in a bank there be considered as part of the estate. Their mother maintained that she saved this sum out of the allowance made by her husband and upon presenting proof to this effect the court upheld the contention. Not many women are so frugal and still fewer are those who receive an allowance of such size that they have much left after paying the ordinary expenses of living.

The fine herd of dairy cattle belonging to Mrs. Durand was killed yesterday in the effort to stamp out the foot and mouth disease and in the further effort to see if orders made by the government can be carried out. It seems a great waste of money and a great infringement of private rights to take animals and kill them because there is some danger of infection from disease. But the best veterinary authorities in this country and in Europe, where the disease is much more prevalent agree that this course is advisable. Mrs. Durand's cattle were very fine and greatly prized by the owner but there was no good reason why an exception should be made of this herd, while others in the same locality were destroyed. The laws and regulations invoked in this fight with the disease must be enforced in an impartial way.

Is History Going to Repeat?

The reports regarding Col. Bryan's criticisms of President Wilson's course bring to mind some history of nearly thirty years ago. Then Gen. Harrison had become president largely by Mr. Blaine's help, it was supposed, and the president made Blaine his premier, as Wilson did for Bryan after the latter's support at the Baltimore convention in 1912.

But General Harrison and Mr. Blaine did not stay harmonious in their views so the secretary of state withdrew. It was reported that he said he would defeat the president for re-election. General Harrison was duly renominated at Minneapolis and sustained a smashing defeat.

Is history going to repeat itself in 1916 and re-act happenings like those recorded in the '80s? The indications are strongly that way.

Democratic Leader not for Wilson's Plan.

The president's preparedness program seems destined to cause him more embarrassment than any other policy he has enunciated. It was seemingly the intention of the president to take a middle ground which would answer the widespread demand for a stronger army and navy and stronger defenses, and which at the same time would not be greatly displeasing to the branch of the party which accords with the views voiced by Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan was quick to go on record as opposed to the president's program the day after it was announced and since that time there have been a number of evidences that the plans as suggested by the president are not complete enough to satisfy those who believe in a thorough preparedness. Yesterday it was announced that Representative Kitchen, Democratic house leader, would not support the president's program and had so stated to the president following a conference at the White House. Altogether the whole big question seems to be one upon which Mr. Wilson's future presidential possibilities largely depend.

BEATING DOWN PRICES.

I called on Rumbelow & Ratz, who deal in fancy Thomas cats, shipped in from France and Spain; I noticed when I stepped within that both the partners ceased to grin, as tho they had a pain. And every place I go to trade, I see the smiles from faces fade—I often wonder why; eh, why do merchants others greet with bows and manners sweet, and meet me with a sigh? "My place is overrun with rats," I said, "I want twelve pounds of cats, so kindly quote your price." "Our cats," said Ratz, "are hale and sound; the price is seven cents a pound which is a sacrifice." "Great Scott!" I cried, "your price is fierce! John Jones sells tomcats by the tierce, and only charges six; if you'll come down a cent a pound, just send a crate of tomcats round;" the partners answered, "Nix!" I stood and argued for an hour, and on their mugs expressions sour still deep and deeper grew, until they laid me on the floor and dragged me to the open door and calmly pushed me through. I wonder why the merchants frown when I go shopping in the town, to buy all kinds of trawls; they all seem happy when I quit; my winning ways don't make a hit, and no one wants my cash.

PLAN FOR GOLDEN BELT TRAIL

According to an article in the White Hall Republican the Golden Belt trail which is to be extended from the Pacific coast east across the continent, is progressing in a satisfactory way. The trail is now being organized thru Missouri under the direction of F. W. Buffum, a state highway commissioner. Between Kansas City and Louisiana Col. Buffum organized a force of a thousand men and they put a forty-foot roadway into good shape in one day's time. It is the intention to begin work on the trail in Illinois before many days. The routing will depend on the decision of Mr. Buffum after he has gone over the territory. Without question the Missouri highways commissioner is one of the most active and enthusiastic good roads workers in the country and when he undertakes a project it is very likely to go thru.

BIG SNOW FIFTY-FOUR YEARS AGO YESTERDAY

To the best knowledge of the writer Nov. 9th, 1859, saw snow about a foot deep in Jacksonville.

There was rain the night before, which turned into an icy covering of street and sidewalks, and then the snow came on the morning of the 9th. This was somewhat accompanied with cold weather, tho not so intense as it might have been. Later on, in the early part of December of that year, it was unusually warm for that time of year.

One thing that helps to keep the weather in mind, as being in 1859, was that, in that December, John Brown, of Ossawatimil was hung by the Virginians, after his raid on Harpers' Ferry. They hung the old man, but slavery was dead inside of five years.

"A Woman's Resurrection"

AN EMOTIONAL EARTHQUAKE

No more telling drama than this was ever shown upon the screen. It is Tolstoy at his supreme best, depicting as none but that masterhand could, the drama of a woman's soul raised from foulest depths to a glorious new life. The scenes are magnificent and varied to a degree seldom seen. In the ensembles 1,000 people take part and over and above all shines the brilliant, scintillating genius of Betty Nanssen, the past mistress of soul-moving emotion.

If this marvelous motion picture doesn't satisfy you, then nothing ever will. Betty Nanssen, in the most powerful photoplay in which she has ever appeared, "A Woman's Resurrection," reaches every heart, though it be walled with triple steel. Picturized with a power that grips like a mailed fist. There is no escaping the tremendous theme "A Woman's Resurrection" deals with, in an unflinching, fearless way. The sins of Society are scourged with a pitiless hand. The most compelling characterization, the greatest tragedienne the world ever created. From first to last it holds audiences spell-bound, keyed to the highest pitch of emotional enthusiasm.

PEORIA COACH SAYS NO SECOND STRING MEN FOR J. H. S. GAME

Visiting Team is Looking for a Practice Game Here Next Saturday, so Have Let up in Their Work.

From the following which is taken from the Peoria Transcript it would seem that the Peoria lads are expecting a snap in the game here against Jacksonville Saturday afternoon, on Illinois field, so have let up in their practice:

"Coach Montgomery doesn't intend to have a repetition of the Decatur episode at Jacksonville next Saturday and as a direct consequence the feeble-minded ones will get a good drubbing.

"There will be no hunting of second string men for the coming game as there was at Decatur last Saturday. Not on your tin-type; the sure enoughts will be on the job when the referee toots his whistle for them to be on their way. If things go along as well as the Black and Red coach expects, a lot of subs will have the opportunity to show themselves. If these young men show themselves to be of first calibre eleven in the Jacksonville game they will have a good chance for the city championship, but 'Hi' says they have got to quit fooling and get down to business or he is going to do something rash.

Lack of Practice.

"The trouble, 'Hi' says, is that the boys do not take practicing as seriously as they should and that when they are in the game they think they have their positions riveted down, and do not display their viciousness like the first of the season. Some of the boys are forming nice rosy visions of their ability, but if they'd be like 'Red' Lawrence, Al Whitney and Dick Reynolds, who can take all the pats and boosting in the world, of which none would stop them from showing their utmost in practice and in the game.

Coach 'Hi' is hoping that the Jacksonville game will afford his first choices just enough work to keep them in trim. If no other injuries are sustained during the week the P. H. S. boys will face the downstate boys in better shape than they did the Decatur eleven. Fullback Wendell has a sprained ankle but is expected to be able to participate in the Saturday game.

"Altogether, as it now appears, the Jacksonville game is just the sort of tuning up the Peoria boys need to meet the South Enders 'Thanksgiving'."

DR. BRANDT SHOWS THAT MORAL LIVING IS NOT ENOUGH

Evangelist Draws Lesson From Query of Rich Young Man—Interest in Services Continues.

The theme of Dr. Brandt at Central Christian church Tuesday night was "Christianity vs. Morality." The evangelist's appealing sermon was based upon the facts about the "rich young ruler" as narrated in the 19th chapter of Matthew. Dr. Brandt's convincing sermon pointed out in a very clear way how morality is essential and commendable but that it does not fulfill all the requirements of the Christian life. Early in the service Mrs. Roland Stice sang very effectively, "He Knows, My Father Knows." At the conclusion of the service there were two confessions of faith and seventeen baptisms. After the principal part of the service, Dr. Brandt gave another illustrated lecture on his travels in China. This was the second in the series promised for this week and was of a most interesting and instructive character. The interest in the evangelistic services is increasing nightly and the church auditorium is filled at each service.

Dr. Brandt said "Within the young man mentioned in our text were caskets of possibilities. He came running to the Master to worship him and in all earnestness of spirit asked, 'What shall I do to inherit the eternal life?' It was characteristic of Christ's ministry that he never turned away anyone with an honest, sincere question unanswered and so he was ready to give the reply to the young ruler. Christ wants to know if you are willing to exalt Him above all and to make Him first in your life. Young men usually need to be saved from themselves in certain ways—that is, there may be disobedience to parents or an undue interest in worldly pleasure. We find from the record that this young ruler in his external life was exemplary, indeed, and that he was good from a moral standpoint, yet Christ made it clear that this was not sufficient to save him. The same thing is true of Nicodemus. He was a good moral man, but the Saviour told him that was not enough and he accepted Christ and was saved. The same line of reasoning was made to Cornelius and he applied it. The man who is simply moral is lacking in both faith and repentance, and the word is written, 'except ye shall repent ye shall likewise perish.' The man who is moral only without the further development is lacking in obedience to the teachings and commandments of Christ. A man may easily think he is right and yet be wrong. The moral man lacks salvation through Christ and this is the great sin of the moral man. The moral man is almost saved, but lost, thru a failure to realize the conditions of salvation laid down in the gospel or the unwillingness to obey the divine injunction."

FUNERALS

Harris.

The body of Dr. B. W. Harris arrived Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock from Georgetown, Mo., and was taken at once to Diamond Grove cemetery where a brief service was held in charge of Rev. Mr. Cronkrite of the Lynnville Christian church, and members of the Lynnville lodge I. O. O. F. of which the deceased had been a member for twenty-five years. Regular funeral services had been held Monday morning at the home of the deceased in Georgetown. Music for the service here was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. Virginia Vasey, Miss Bertha Gordon, Edwin Gordon and W. W. Gillam, who sang "Come unto Me," and "Abide With Me." Among the floral offerings were a handsome wreath from the Lynnville lodge of Odd Fellows and another from the Pottsville County, Mo. medical society. Mrs. Annie Westover, Mrs. Annie Lankford and Miss Carrie Campbell had charge of the flowers. The bearers were Albert Todd, L. McCarty, Ventnor McNeely, J. O. Parker, Anderson Davis and William Stevenson.

Deceased was born Nov. 11, 1869 in Lamont, Mo., and died Nov. 7th, 1915 at his home in Georgetown, Missouri. When four years old he came with his parents to Illinois and here was reared and educated. He attended Barnes Medical college at St. Louis from which he was graduated in 1895, locating at once in Georgetown. He was married seventeen years ago to Miss Winifred Heaton of Lynnville and she and three brothers survive him. The brothers are Percy Harris of Lamont, Mo.; Harry Harris of Sinclair, Mo.; Dr. Douglas Harris of Prentice. The body was accompanied from Missouri by Mrs. Harris, Fred Harris of Lamont, a nephew, and Mrs. J. W. Heaton, mother-in-law of the deceased.

MORTUARY

Burguesser.

Mrs. Burgessuer died at her home in St. Louis Sunday. She was the mother of Mrs. Reedner and Mrs. S. P. Angelo of this city and both went down to the funeral.

A pleasant incident occurred yesterday showing the cordial manner in which people regard the coming campaign of Passavant hospital. Hearing that some tables would be needed in the office of the manager, Messrs. Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie sent up a number.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sullivan of New Berlin and Mrs. Anna Reid of Bates were guests Tuesday at the home of Mr. F. J. Kaiser of Alexandria.

MAN HUNTED THIRTY-SIX YEARS FOR MURDER SURRENDERS

Benjamin Miller, Wanted in Sangamon County for Crime Committed in 1879, Gives Self Up in Louisiana.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 9.—In 1879 James Kirlin, a saloonkeeper at Riverton, near here, was shot and killed and Benjamin A. Miller, the town marshal, was indicted for murder, but never was apprehended. Sheriff Wheeler of Sangamon county received today from Sheriff T. J. DeWitt of Jena, Louisiana, the following telegram:

"An aged man walked into my office this morning, giving the name of Benjamin Miller. He says he is wanted for the murder of James Kirlin at Riverton in 1879.

"He tells me that he is near death and that for nigh forty years he has been a hunted animal, driven from corner to corner of the earth, fleeing the justice that would overtake him for the killing of Kirlin if he should be arrested.

"He says he is tired of it and wants to surrender himself. I am holding him until I hear whether you want him."

A deputy sheriff, bearing a copy of the old indictment against Miller will be sent to Jena to get Miller, who is said to be nearly eighty years old. The shooting occurred following an attempt by the marshal to make Kirlin stop firing a gun with in the village of Riverton. Many relatives of both men are still living here.

TEN CONVICTS TESTIFY IN TRIAL OF JOSEPH CAMPBELL

Prisoners Tell Where They Were at the Time Mr. Allen Was Murdered.

Joliet, Ill., Nov. 9.—Ten convicts serving terms in the Illinois state penitentiary were on the witness stand today in the trial of Joseph Campbell, a negro convict charged with the murder of Mrs. Edmund Allen, wife of the former warden, who was killed in the warden's apartments, and told where they were at the time of the deed.

Others will testify tomorrow in the process of elimination by which the attempt is made by the state to show that only Campbell had access to Mrs. Allen's apartments.

Today's witnesses were: Frankie McCann, Charles Stupey, Joliet; John Gukowski, Chicago; Joseph Buckley, Chicago; Solomon Kohn, Chicago; Henry O. Jones, George Scheidt, Charles Larson and Thomas Mara.

All of these held trusted positions in the prison and some had liberty at night so that they might have fallen under suspicion. According to their stories none of them were at the scene of the crime when the deed was committed.

HOLD CONFERENCE ABOUT NEEDED WOMAN'S COLLEGE FUND

Conditions Imposed by Educational Board and Certifying Law Make Completion of $200,000 Endowment Necessary.

Trustees of Illinois Woman's College, conference visitors and a number of business men who assisted in the campaign for funds two years ago were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Harker at the college last night. While the occasion was pleasant in a social way, the purpose of the gathering was to confer about the situation which now confronts the college.

It is necessary as recently stated that the sum of $75,000 be raised by Jan. 1 as an addition to the endowment, making the total sum $200,000. It is the hope of President Harker and the committees which have the matter in charge to raise this entire sum outside of Jacksonville, but should this fail it will be necessary to call upon Jacksonville people to make up any deficiency. The situation is the result of the order made by the educational board of the church which requires that a certain number of students shall be enrolled in full college work that a certain number of teachers shall be employed in college work, and that the total of endowment shall be not less than $200,000.

The college now has twice the number of teachers required, four times the number of students, but lacks $75,000 of the total fund. The question of raising the standards for colleges was taken up originally by the university senate in 1909 and then this action was endorsed by the general conference of the M. E. church in Minneapolis in 1912. At that time it was provided that colleges might be allowed a period of several years before the standard requirements were in force, and the limit expires with the first of January. Aside from this order of the church, it is necessary for the college to meet these conditions in order to measure up to the requirements of the Illinois certifying law. This law provides for the formation of a state board of education whose duty it shall be to compile a list of recognized colleges. Diplomas from these colleges will place graduates in position where they may become teachers in any high school in the state of Illinois without examination. In the past the state laws have been such that no matter what college the would-be teacher attended, it was necessary to take a state examination before a certificate could be issued. The new law is a distinct advantage to colleges which meet the requirements and these requirements for the certifying law are the same as those outlined by the church authorities.

At the conference last night an agreement was made that those present and others who are to be called upon will co-operate with President Harker and the college officials in any way which may be found necessary in carrying out the order of the educational board. Judged by the past it is safe to predict that the campaign which has now been entered upon will be successful, but it is a known fact that President Harker has no announcement of aid that he is withholding and he has impressed upon the friends of the institution that a united effort is really necessary if the fund is raised and the condition met. There is no cause for discussing the necessity there is of meeting the conditions described, for no friend of the institution would be willing to consider for a moment the possibility of the college losing the prestige it has gained since it earned the right to rank as a college and by its failure returing to the academy grade.

"MUCH IMPROVED" SAYS SHOWMAN

"Billy" Martin of Peoria, Ill., Makes Interesting Statement.

HIGHLY PRAISES TANLAC

"Yes, I feel a great deal better," said "Billy" Martin, the well known showman, who resides at 412 Hubert street, Peoria, and who has a host of friends in this city. Mr. Martin was recently discussing Tanlac, the new preparation now being introduced in Jacksonville, and was telling of the great benefit which he derived from the use of the "Master Medicine". He continued:

"I have suffered for some time past with stomach trouble and indigestion. I failed to digest my food properly and felt languid and listless most of the time. It was hard for me to sleep soundly and I was forced many times to get up in the morning feeling all worn out and with hardly energy enough to go about my work.

"I had very little appetite and the few dishes that I did relish did not seem to give me the proper nourishment. I watched the introduction of Tanlac in this city with interest and I was finally so impressed with the statements of prominent people whom I knew and who had been benefited by the use of the medicine, that I decided to try it myself.

"As I said before I am feeling greatly improved. My stomach is in better condition than it has been for a long time and I now enjoy an excellent appetite. I can eat with relish most anything on the 'menu card' and without suffering afterwards. I seem to have new strength and energy with which to carry on my work which makes everything easier than heretofore. Tanlac has proved the first relief that I have had for a long time and I am greatly indebted to this medicine for my greatly improved condition."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine", is now being sold in Jacksonville, Ill., at the drug store of Coover & Shreve.—Advertisement.

EAT WITHOUT FEAR OF INDIGESTION OR SOUR, ACID STOMACH

Instant Relief! "Pape's Diapiesin" Ends Your Stomach Trouble Forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.

RELIEVES THE WORST CASE OF CATARRH

Think "Hyomel" the Most Wonderful Treatment for Catarrh Ever Discovered.

Do not try to cure catarrh by using sprays or lotions; it cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be fully relieved is through a direct application to the affected parts that will kill the bacilli of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Breathing the air of Hyomel is the only known method of treatment that can really accomplish this. It is the simplest, most pleasant and probably the most reliable treatment for catarrh that has ever been discovered.

Numerous unsolicited testimonials have been received from prominent men and women who have been helped by this remarkable remedy. Ministers, bankers, lawyers, even eminent physicians have given strong testimony as to the powers of Hyomel.

The complete Hyomel outfit is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomel to last several weeks. This will effect instant relief in ordinary cases, but for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh, longer use may be necessary, and then an extra bottle of Hyomel can be obtained for a trifling sum. It is not alone the best (it might be called the only) method of treating catarrh, but it is also the most economical.

Coover & Shreve have so much confidence in the power of Hyomel to relieve catarrh, that they will for a limited time, sell this medicine under their personal guarantee to refund the money if the purchaser can say that it did not benefit.—Adv.

MYRTLE W. TANDY, PRESIDENT OF REBEKAH STATE ASSEMBLY

SESSIONS OF GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS

SEVENTY-EIGHTH GATHERING IN SPRINGFIELD.

Rebekah State Assembly of which Mrs. Myrtle W. Tandy is President, will participate in gathering—brief outline of program—Delegations from Jacksonville.

Plans have practically been completed for the 78th session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and the 31st annual session of the Rebekah State assembly which will take place in Springfield, Nov. 15 to 18. The sessions of the Grand Lodge will be held in representatives' hall in the state house. The Grand Master, W. H. Pease, has announced that the work in the initiatory and first degrees will be at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening in the state armory. This work will be exemplified according to the interpretations of the degree by the chief of examiners and instructors, H. M. Blood. Mr. Blood will also hold a school of instruction for examiners and instructors on Monday, Nov. 15, from 10 a. m. to 12, and from 2 until 5 p. m., in representatives' hall.

On Wednesday will take place the grand parade thru the principal streets of Springfield. All branches of the order will participate in this parade, the Patriarchs Militant in full dress, with bands of music, banners and automobiles. The expense of this parade will be borne by the Springfield lodge. The initiatory degree will be exemplified by the degree staff of the Good Samaritan lodge of Chicago, the first degree staff of exemplified by the degree staff of Golden Harmony lodge of Chicago.

Rebekah State Assembly. The Rebekah state assembly will hold their first meeting at 4 p. m. Monday, Nov. 15, when the past presidents' association meets at the St. Nicholas hotel. On Tuesday Grace A. Henry, chief of examiners and instructors, will hold a school of instruction at the First Christian church. At 2 p. m. the Rebekah assembly will convene in special session at the state armory for the purpose of conferring the assembly degree.

Caritas Lodge in Work. The Rebekah degree will be exemplified by Caritas lodge No. 625 of this city. Immediately after the work, a reception and grand ball will be given. On Wednesday, Nov. 19, after the regular session and assembly degrees are conferred, a program will be given by the children of the Odd Fellows' Orphans' home of Lincoln. At 9:30 p. m. a banquet will be given in honor of Myrtle W. Tandy, of this city, president of the Rebekah state assembly. The work of the assembly will take up again on Thursday at 9:30.

Needs of Order. The Rebekah lodges have let it be known that they need at the Old Folks home at Mattoon about $2,500 for a refrigerating plant which would mean a great saving in the running expense of the home. At the Odd Fellows' Orphans' home money is needed to furnish the living room for the boys. It will cost about $300 and the room will accommodate 32 boys.

Grand Encampment. The Grand Encampment will hold its 66th session in connection with the meeting at Springfield. Grand Patriarch Norman Waitrip will be in charge. On Monday T. H. Thompson will hold a school of instruction in the Old Fellows' temple. At 1:30 in the afternoon the scribes' meeting will be held, and at 2:30 there will be a continuation of the school of instruction. At 4 p. m. the patriarchal and golden rule degrees will be exemplified in the state armory by the degree staff of Cook County Encampment, No. 225, Chicago. At 7:30 the Grand Encampment will convene in regular session in the senate chamber in the state house, at which time the Grand Encampment degree will be conferred. At 8:30 the same evening the Royal Purple degree will be exemplified by the degree staff of Cook County lodge,

No. 215. The regular sessions will open again on Tuesday at 9 a. m. and at 12 noon the Grand Encampment will be photographed on the state house steps.

Successful Year's Work.

Myrtle W. Tandy, president of the Rebekah state assembly, will have ended her year's work at the meeting to be held in Springfield. She has had an unusually successful year and the Rebekah lodges of the state have felt the impetus for better work and for advancement as the result of her efforts. As was mentioned above, Mrs. Tandy's own lodge, Caritas, No. 25, of this city, will exemplify the degree work. Mrs. Tandy has been making an inspection of the various degree staffs of the state and the Caritas is considered to be one of the best thruout her jurisdiction. Mrs. Tandy has been mentioned by her friends for the position of state chief of examiners and instruction, but as yet has not decided to enter the race.

Large Delegation from Here.

From the fact that the annual Odd Fellows' sessions are to be held so close to this city, it is expected that a large delegation from the various organizations here will be in attendance. It is not at all unlikely that some special arrangements will be made with the Wabash & Alton roads for the return of the Jacksonville delegation from Springfield after the evening sessions have closed. Further announcement along this line, however, will be made at a later date.

THE CHAPMAN REVIVAL.

Springfield ministers are having a religious survey of that city made. This is in anticipation of a series of Chapman-Alexander Evangelistic meetings to begin in Springfield Jan. 6th, next.

Dr. Chapman will be remembered as conducting a successful series of meetings here some twenty years ago. At that time the evening and Sabbath meetings were held in the Opera House and the general weekly meetings in the State Street church. Sometimes overflow meetings were held in Centenary church. Richard Yates was chief usher, with four assistant chief ushers, and each of these had charge of fifteen or twenty ushers and assistants; that is at the Opera House gathering.

Dr. Chapman did a great work; and it is to be hoped that a similar experience may be that of the state capital.

FROM NORTH DAKOTA TO JACKSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Osborne who were formerly residents of Murrayville precinct and for the past six years living in North Dakota, have bought a home in South Jacksonville and are now here at present the guests of Mrs. Osborne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Crabtree near their place recently bought. They will be welcomed back to Morgan county by many friends.

VISIT IN VERSAILLES.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Noyes returned Monday evening from a visit of two days with friends in Versailles. Some excellent Illinois river fishing was reported by Dr. Noyes.

FED DIRECTORS DECIDE TO INVADE NEW YORK

KANSAS CITY CLUB WILL BE SENT TO MANHATTAN.

Gilmore Announces Grounds Have Been Obtained—Majority of Owners Go to French Lick to Meet "O. B." Representatives.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 9.—Directors of the Federal League at their annual meeting here today definitely decided to invade New York in 1916. The Kansas City club, whose franchise was declared forfeited, will be sent to New York and strengthened "so that it will merit the support of the New York fans."

James A. Gilmore, who was re-elected president of the league stated after the meeting that the grounds had been obtained on Manhattan Island for the New York club. He said plans had been submitted for stands to seat 55,000 persons and that the league would be ready for operation in New York at the beginning of the 1916 season.

The Buffalo franchise also was forfeited, but it is understood the owners will re-organize and that Buffalo will have a place in the league next season.

"It is believed," said President Gilmore, "that the Buffalo situation will later be taken care of properly by the citizens of that community."

After the meeting the majority of the club owners departed for French Lick, where it was reported they would meet representatives of organized baseball with a view to getting the "war" between the Federals and organized baseball. It was said here that Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Nationals; Col. Jacob Ruppert of the New York Americans; Charles Comiskey of the Chicago Americans were in French Lick but a despatch from there said Colonel Ruppert was the only organized baseball man who had arrived.

Conrad H. Mann of Kansas City club who wired that he was on his way did not reach the city in time to attend the meeting.

No Surprise to Stockholders.

Kansas City, Nov. 9.—The forfeiture of the Kansas City franchise in the Federal League was no surprise to the local stockholders. According to a report made at a stockholders' meeting here October 25th, the local club showed a loss of $25,300 on the season's operations. The club was in debt to the league to the extent of $8,300.

MORIARTY IS RELEASED.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 9.—Announcement was made today that George Moriarty, captain of the Detroit American league baseball team had been given his unconditional release by F. J. Navin, president of the local club. Moriarty is now at his home in Woodstock, Ill. It is understood he has received several offers to manage minor league clubs.

Mrs. F. P. McKinney of Chapin was among the shoppers with Jacksonville merchants yesterday.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

RAPID ENLARGEMENT OF STOCKS
STIMULATES BEARISH SENTIMENT

Wheat Closes Nervous at a Net Loss
—December Corn Shows Loss
But May Delivery Advances.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Rapid enlargement of stock for both domestic and foreign tended today to stimulate bearish sentiment regarding wheat. The market closed nervous at 1.02 1/2 net lower with December at 1.02 1/2 and May 1.03 3/4 @ 1.03 1/2. Corn showed a loss of a sixteenth for December but 1/4 @ 1/2 advance for May. Oats finished unchanged to be lower; and provisions down 7 1/2 to 35c.

Hurried unloading by owners of wheat took place as soon as figures were posted disclosing a big increase in the world's available stock. Breaks in the price of wheat were followed by reports that as a result farmers in Nebraska and the northwest showed signs of adopting a policy of holding back consignments. Traders friendly to an advance derived a minor degree of comfort also from word that estimates of the Argentine exportable surplus would have to be cut owing to damage done by drought.

Corn developed comparative strength, influenced by opinions that measured by feeding value the total domestic yield this season was but slightly above the crop of 1914. Judged by the same standard an actual shortage was said to be indicated for the surplus states. Oats held about steady.

Offerings were absorbed by houses that usually act for the seaboard.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend". During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of chronic motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do those knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses which are usually looked forward to with so much concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women. It is absolutely safe to use, renders the skin pliable, is penetrating in its nature and is composed of those embrocations best suited to thoroughly lubricate the nerves, muscles, tendons and ligaments involved.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. The regular price is $1.00 a bottle. It is prepared only by Bradfield Regulator Co., 591 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Avoid the many worthless substitutes. It should be remembered that what is said of "Mother's Friend" is the thought expressed by the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

DR. NORBURY ADDRESSED AUDIENCE AT THE LA FAYETTE SCHOOL

Discussed Educational Tests for Children Before Parent-Teachers Organization—Musical Program and Social Hour Completed Splendid Program.

A very large audience attended the meetings of the parent-teachers' association at the Lafayette school building Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Frank R. Norbury had been announced to give an address and his theme was "Intellectual Tests; Their Theory and Application." The address was of special interest and value to teachers and to the parents of children. There are ever present problems not generally understood.

In addition to Dr. Norbury's address, the audience had the pleasure of hearing a violin solo "Liedesfreund" very beautifully played by Miss Minnie Hoffman, who was accompanied by her sister, Miss Grace Hoffman. Following the formal program came a social hour and the whole meeting was one of the most successful of the series being held under the direction of the Second Ward Parent-Teachers' association. The arrangements for the social hour had been made by the social committee, and included refreshments.

Dr. Norbury's address was in part as follows:

The exceptional child has always been a problem whether he be backward precocious, delinquent or degenerate. It has been only within the past century that the problems centering in the mental life of a child, have been given intelligent consideration. The French as usual in pedagogical and mental diversion lead in the evolution of what we now know as modern clinical psychology. Pestalozzi inspired by Rousseau in 1767, contributed the first work in child psychology and founded a farm to treat and educate children according to his doctrine of "reform by environment". From his work emanated all modern methods and theories of education.

Froebel worked in this institution. Germany, Sweden and other nations followed and the modern physical culture of Sweden had its origin in this movement.

Rousseau in his book "Emile" thus influenced this educational movement which is still in its evolution, with the modern Montessori system as the latest contribution and the psychological clinics in our public school as one of its beneficent results.

Arthur Holmes in his book "The Conservation of the Child", epitomizes the work of this great modern movement in education.

The psychological clinic is the outgrowth of the new clinical psychology. The first clinic founded upon modern conceptions in clinical psychology in this country was that at the university of Pennsylvania when about 18 years ago prompted by an experience with a child in the public schools Dr. Lighter Witmer, professor of psychology, began in a small way to give individual study to the exceptional child.

The rapid growth since that time of this clinic and its radiations all over this country have prompted the establishment of clinics and have enlisted the co-operation of school boards in working out the problems of the individual child as we find him in the public schools. The clinic has for its object the study of the problem of the child from all viewpoints and to gather this data before the special classes in the public schools are entered. The problems are both social and biological,—by social I mean the home

ALL CHILDREN LOVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give It When Fretful, Cross, Bilious For Bad Breath or Sour Stomach.

Look at the tongue Mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well-playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

life, the neighborhood life, the city or country environmental condition.—By biological I mean the scientific consideration of the child as a living being, his physical and mental endowments and a study of his family tree to know his potentialities that we may have some conception of his abilities, inadequacies, traits and tendencies. The problems are scientific ones and not to be considered in a haphazard way but given weight and consideration as we view them in their individual worth to the child, to the family, to the community. It is only in considering the child as an individual that we can expect to understand the factors. Psychological, physical and environmental, which determine the results we hope to attain and to add to human progress in applying these results.

This is the real propaganda of a psychological interpretation from a pedagogical and eugenic standpoint. The defects which make the child exceptional need scientific interpretation. The causes which operate to produce mentally defective children will when operating with less severity produce children who are backward in their progress thru the grades.

Dr. Witmer roughly estimates that there are 5,000,000 children in the United States who are backward. Ayers says one-third in the schools based on his surveys are behind in their grade work—that is actual year's average grades—show mental age lower for grades of average child. There is a reason for this and it is the purpose of the clinical psychologist to find out. It is a reasonable proposition, as Witmer says, to suppose that a cause which in one child may produce or contribute to backwardness, may, in another child, act as a handicap, however slight. Children who outstrip their companions are in turn outstripped by others. "Examine these entirely normal children with the same care we do the backward children; take the same precautions to remove every obstacle, and the children to whom we have devoted this scientific born thought will advance with much greater ease and rapidity. There is the child of more than average ability—he may have the making of a man of genius. He should be conserved, the race needs him and our schools should conserve this exceptional child just as well as the backward child. Our schools pay little attention to children of exceptional ability except to speed them on. Such a child needs or has adequately met, and if his needs were known it may be shown he really is a greater danger than his backward fellows. If his psychology were known, his physical condition known, his sleep habits, his environment—then he could be conserved.

From five to twelve months the career of this indefatigable research worker, the baby unaided by anyone, except in protection has revealed how wonderful is the evolution of mind. At no other time in life are such varied intellectual interests thus stimulated with new thoughts, new ideas, new associations, at full speed all day, working over time, until sleep supervenes. Every baby does this every day.

We follow the child's career from new on and we find new increments of thought, feeling, doing, new adjustments to environment. Mind and body develop harmoniously and at school age we find there has been a growth wherein under ordinary conditions all of the fundamentals for intellectual life have been laid down. These vary according to course to the individual. The mental tests for intelligence include in our study of an individual his reactions to his environment, his co-ordination exhibited in walking, standing, sitting, his speech, words, sentences, articulation, sense, reason, general knowledge, grasp as exhibited in use of language in his conduct toward himself, his parents, family, home and neighborhood. Then we analyze his own conduct in detail. These facts give data upon which to found special tests.

The recital of the ordinary daily life of the child is important. Tests then made are the simpler the better. The real test of mentality in one's reactions under normal conditions and the nearer we approach normal conditions the more definite are results. Play is normal to child life and tests made in play are therefore nearer normal conditions and we regard such tests worth while more so than more formal pedagogical tests. Mental tests are numerous as you can find out by consulting Whipple's Manual and many are impractical.

An elaborate test is impracticable; it must be simple and quickly applied. The experienced observer can avoid much of the detail. There are no standardized tests, the Binet is nearer to such standardization, but no clinical psychologist would insist upon following it in detail in each case. The idea that a method of examination can be made precise enough to be trusted to everyone must be abandoned. All scientific procedure is but an instrument, which requires the direction of an intelligent hand. The question paramount after all is the educability of the child. It is primary in diagnosis and important for future training. The ordinary tests may be all that is necessary. The pedagogical test of ability to absorb symbolic knowledge and his reactions may be all that is necessary in observation of the intelligence test.

Pedagogical tests are manifestly suitable only for children who have attended school for some time. For those who are too young or who have not attended school, a system test is necessary.

Such a test is general in its application and involves a mental process that is fundamental and measures the attitude of the child toward his task. They are not pedagogical in that they involve school knowledge, but rather involve things out of school.

The Binet test is the best and it must be used with judgment and in interpretation. The test must consider the child as a living being, which should be solved. First the confidence of the child must be gained for there must be co-operation in the application of this test. First, begin with the test as to age and this must be approached gently lest the child feel he is being made fun of. The intellectual level is judged only by a group of tests. A child may be retarded in certain tests for his own age and advanced in others. It is clinically unjust and absurd to judge a child by one test alone. Intelligence cannot be measured like height, breadth and thickness, it is a combination of all facts. It is in judging this combination that the Binet test is helpful. True it is artificial, but it is nearer normal variations for measurement than anything we have. It enables us to measure retardation and precocity. Tests are not arbitrary, they are provisional and give the clue for meeting individual educational need. They are therefore diagnostic, which marks the value of the test. There must be study of combined conditions to make up the data which form the factors in the problem.

NUMBER OF ORDERS ENTERED IN CIRCUIT COURT TUESDAY

Several Cases Disposed of at Yesterday's Sessions by Judge Jones

A number of orders were entered in the circuit court Tuesday. Just before the closing of court Judge Jones heard the case of Ida Foster Goodell vs. Andrew J. Goodell, in petition for citation. In this case it seems that at a previous term of court the complainant was granted a divorce and allowed $30 per month. This sum the defendant Andrew J. Goodell never paid. His former wife then had him haled into court to show cause why he did not comply with the court's orders. The case amounts practically to a proceeding for contempt of court unless the defendant can show that he is not able to pay the amount. Judge Jones after hearing what evidence there was to present continued the hearing to Tuesday next at 9 o'clock. The following orders entered Tuesday.

Law. J. A. Carlson vs. J. A. Wright, attachment. Defendant called and makes default. Evidence heard in open court. Suit on promissory note. Court finds and assesses damages of plaintiff in the sum of $117.48 and costs in favor of plaintiff against defendant. Special execution to issue against property attached.

John S. Green vs. William Triplett, appeal from J. P. Appeal dismissed on motion of defendant and clerk to refund one-half of fee to defendant.

Claus Tomhave vs. Richard H. ortman. Cross motion by plaintiff to strike motion. Cross motion allowed. Original motion stricken and Elizabeth Vortman and James Gorman except.

Harry Wilson vs. Jacksonville Railway and Light company, a corporation. appeal from J. P. By agreement jury waived. Parties answer ready. Trial entered upon, evidence heard and concluded. Court finds for defendant and that it is entitled to the sum of $24.45 on its plea of setoff after allowing plaintiff the sum of $27.50 on his demand against defendant. Judgment on findings in favor of defendant and against plaintiff on the plea of setoff for $25.45 and costs.

J. W. Hargrove vs. Maud Cox and John E. Cot attachment. Suit dismissed by plaintiff and attachment released.

Chancery. Mabel C. Bayler vs. Maurice Bayler, divorce. Evidence heard on the charge of extreme and repeated cruelty. Court finds defendant guilty of said charge.

Edward Wemple et al vs. Charles Grossman et al foreclosure. Bill amended. Rule on all defendants to answer by Nov. 16, 1915.

Sallie Browning Orser vs. The Farmers' State Bank and Trust company et al, partition. Motion by defendants to inspect record to dismiss bill because proof fails to establish the material allegation of the bill.

Rosselle Nunes vs. Manuel Nunes, divorce. Bill dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

Fred B. Henderson as administrator vs. Minnie E. Edelbrock et al petition, etc. Report of distribution of surplus of proceeds of sale under decree on cross bill to Levi S. Doane approved and cause stricken.

Oscar F. Conklin vs. William E. Edmonds et al. Bill to quiet title. All adult defendants called and make default and cause referred to master. Ida Foster Goodell vs. Andrew J. Goodell, petition for citation. Defendant appears in open court. Hearing on defendant's failure to comply with former order of court entered upon and hearing continued to Tuesday next at 9 o'clock a. m.

WILL HAVE GAME SUNDAY. What promises to be one of the biggest games of the season will be played at Nichols park next Sunday, weather permitting, between the Eagles and the Springfield Independents. The "Indies", as they are called in Springfield, are the champions of the capital city. They also have the honor of trimming the fast Ashland team. The only series they have lost recently was that with the famous Carlinville Blues. The Independents have with them Frank Loftin for several years left fielder for the Springfield Three Eye League team. They also have a number of other players of class, among them Kinsella, an outfielder who is leadoff man. The Eagles have won most of their games this season and believe they can take the Independents into camp.

CHAPIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holliday of Bluffs and Miss Mary Hastings of East St. Louis are guests at the home of J. B. Holliday.

Miss Amy Onken was a visitor Tuesday in Springfield.

The Chapin Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Hadaway. Mrs. Lou Alderson read a paper written by Mrs. J. Z. Fox on "The Early History of Illinois". Miss Helena Markham responded with a piano solo. Excellent refreshments were served.

MR. POWELL HONORED.

Elmer N. Powell, of Kansas City, has recently been elected president of the Kansas City Bar association. Mr. Powell is well known in Jacksonville because of his marriage here in 1897 to Miss Ilga Herbel. It was in 1890 that Mr. Powell went to Kansas City and he has been prominent there in various ways ever since that time. Referring to the election of Mr. Powell, the Kansas City Bar Monthly said recently, "In unanimously electing Hon. Elmer N. Powell, president of our Kansas City Bar association, we have quite followed the modern idea by choosing in him a man of executive force who has worked thru the ranks and is a high class lawyer as well. Owing to his personal popularity, ability and genius for work, Mr. Powell has without doubt been elected to the presidency of more prominent public organizations than any other man of his age in Kansas City. Mr. Powell has stood for the highest ideals in his profession and is an able and successful lawyer."

NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak."

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Made Me Well and Strong.

MACEDON, N. Y.—"I was all run down and very thin in flesh, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep and was weak, and felt badly all the time. The doctors said I had poor blood and what I had was turning to water. I took different medicines which did not help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. FRED CHACE, R. No. 2, Macedon, N. Y.

The Change of Life.

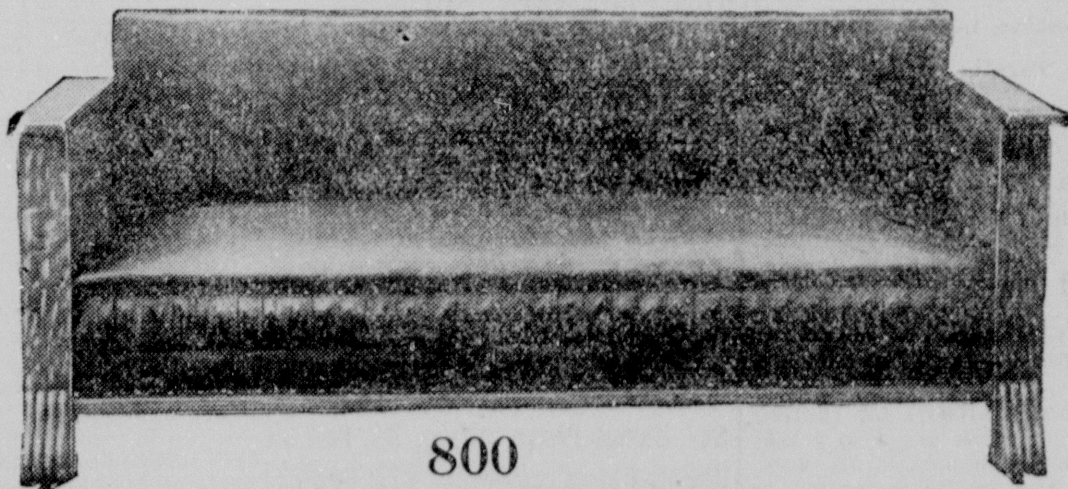

BELTSVILLE, Md.—"By the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I have successfully passed through a most trying time, the Change of Life. I suffered with a weakness, and had to stay in bed three days at a time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I am praising it for the benefit of other women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. W. S. DUVALL, Route No. 1, Beltsville, Md.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HOTEL DOUGLAS WILL BE OPENED TODAY

HOSTELRY HAS UNDERGONE EXTENSIVE REMODELING.

Ballard - Johnson Company, Lessees of Building Have Put Management in Capable Hands—Some Changes Noted About Premises.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the new Hotel Douglas will open its doors to the traveling public. The hotel has been under course of remodeling for the last eight months and today opens as one of the best hotels in the central west. The hotel building is practically new, having been erected ten years ago. Yet despite this fact the owners have really rebuilt it. When it was first planned early in the spring it was contemplated that $7,000 would be spent in improvements but when Messrs. Ballard and Johnson took the lease it was decided to make even more extensive improvements and the result has been the expenditure of over $15,000 in betterments.

Employees of Company.

The Ballard-Johnson company has engaged George W. Scott, a well known and popular hotel man as manager of the hotel and cafe. Mr. Scott will have supervision over the entire plant. With him will be associated the following: Miss Frances Herring, assistant office manager, William B. Taylor, night clerk, Thomas H. Robinson, chef, Mrs. Ben Tate, pastry cook, Luther Johnson, night chef, Howard Shepherd, Charles Seales, Margaret Tiven and Daisy Putman assistants in the cafe, Miss Carrie Martin, housekeeper, Miss Jennie DeFreitas house maid, W. A. Taylor, houseman, Walter B. Taylor, chief porter, Richard Lester and William Johnson, porters.

Work by Local Firm.

In the remodeling of the building the general contract was let to Joseph DeGoveia. Mr. DeGoveia had entire charge of all of the remodeling work and when Messrs. Ballard and Johnson leased the building they placed him in charge of all of the work which they desired to be done. Mr. DeGoveia has handled the work in a manner satisfactory both to the men who own the building and to Ballard and Johnson. A large number of local firms have furnished both material and work in the remodeling that has resulted in a perfect hotel property. Those who contributed are: Brady Bros., August Faust, Alden Brown, William F. Thompson, J. J. Mallen & Son, George Rodriguez, F. J. Andrews Lumber Co., South Side Planing Mill Co., Crawford Lumber Co., Simeon Fernandes and Sons, Andre and Andre, George S. Gay, D. E. Sweeney, H. DeCastro & Co., Jacksonville Plumbing and Heating Co., C. C. Schureman, Illinois Steel Bridge Co., G. A. Seiber, Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., J. M. Vasconcellos, W. G. Benson and S. R. Armstrong.

Lobby, Crowning Feature.

Perhaps the crowning feature of the Douglas hotel is the lobby, or main office. Ballard and Johnson realized the fact that the guests who stop at a hotel spend but little time in their rooms. They rather want a home like place in which to spend their spare time. The large room formerly used for a dining room in the old Illinois has been converted into a lobby. This has a stairway of quarter sawed golden oak leading to the upper floors and also an elevator. The decorating done by J. J. Mallen & Son is in keeping with the wood work. The panels are done in lin-crusta to match the oak woodwork. The decorating is finished in what is known as a Tiffany blend. The office is equipped with a telephone exchange and with booths for both the Illinois and Bell Telephone for long distance calls. The furniture is the celebrated Kalex upholstered in German tapestries and is called the indestructible furniture. There are also colonial writing tables in the lobby. The lighting is the indirect system which is the most modern known.

Dining Room.

In the dining room or cafe Messrs. Ballard and Johnson have combined all of the features that characterize their dining rooms and cafes established in other cities. The firm has made a specialty of this work and wherever Ballard-Johnson sign is displayed the public may rest assured of first class service in every respect. The dining room of the Douglas will seat 50 people. The fixtures are three quarter sawed golden oak. The lunch counter has a vitrolite glass top and seats to match. In addition to the counter there will be a number of tables for patrons which will be arranged in the rear and along the side of the room in front. The decorations of the dining room are lin-crusta wallton with scenic friezes and the effect is very pretty.

The kitchen is one feature of the hotel that the firm takes a great pride in. It is equipped with a large wrought iron range, a steam table with warming ovens and a pastry table. There also is a copper lined sink with hot and cold water. In the kitchen is a McCrea refrigerator which will be used for the storing of meats.

Hotel Has 45 Rooms.

The hotel has 45 rooms which are furnished in the most up-to-date manner. Each room has hot and cold water. In every room is a colonial dresser, chair, rocking chair, cabinet grip bench, brass bed with luxury mattress and springs. Each room has a telephone and in addition the management has placed a pin cushion with white and black thread, needles and buttons and also a shoe shining strap.

The rooms are all furnished with Wilton velvet carpets and best quality opaque shades. The hall of the third floor is a brown Wilton velvet carpet while the hall on the second floor is furnished with a two tone green carpet. The curtains which are all velles and Crims are hung on untarnishable rods.

The management also has provided writing tables and chairs and a sofa on the second floor in west hall for ladies where they can wait and write letters. The same provisions have been made in the north end of the third floor hall on the west side of the hotel. In the furnishings of the hotel Messrs. Ballard and Johnson have spent $10,000 and the result of this expenditure is easily seen in the richness and completeness of the hotel from basement to roof.

Remodeling of Basement.

One of the main improvements and which was only recently contemplated is the remodeling of the basement of the building. By this remodeling the hotel has two sample rooms in the basement which are well lighted. These rooms will have brussels carpet on the floor and be equipped with every modern convenience. In addition to these rooms there is a third sample room on the first floor which is perfect in every detail.

In the basement also will be the trunk room. This room is 20 by 35 feet and is modern in every respect. In the basement is also located the store room. This room is 15 by 30 feet and will be used for the storage of groceries and other food stuffs used in the restaurant. The firm has in large quantities and must of necessity have storage room for their goods.

Last but not least is the barber shop. The shop is directly off of the main lobby from the north. The decorations are hand carved. The shop will be in charge of W. J. Gray. He has equipped it with unadorned white sanitary chairs and everything is modern and up-to-date.

The Douglas Hotel opens under most auspicious circumstances and the public should go today and see what improvements have been wrought. It is the intention of Ballard and Johnson to run a hotel that is up-to-the-minute in every particular and their constant endeavor will be to give the public what it wants. By that method they hope to get the patronage of the best class of people.

FORMER EMPLOYEES ARE MAKING GOOD IN BUSINESS

Miss Kathryn O'Brien, formerly employed at Floreth's Dry Goods store has been sent by Marshall Field company of Chicago to Paris to buy infants and children's wearing apparel, which is a mission of responsibility and trust. Miss O'Brien had her first experience as a saleslady with Mr. Floreth. The family moved from Jacksonville to Chicago, some fifteen years ago when Miss O'Brien secured a position in the infant department of Marshall Field. John Flynn, another former employee of Mr. Floreth went from here to Farwell Company, Chicago, and now has the responsible position of sales manager of all western states for the Western Thread company of Elgin, one of the largest concerns of its kind in the United States. Frank Woodward of White Hall also went from the Floreth store to John E. Farwell Company, Chicago, and now holds a responsible position as traveling salesman. Miss Corinne McGhee another employee is now with a large firm in Detroit, Mich., and is making good. The facts that all these people got their start with Mr. Floreth speaks well for the training that he has given them and for the ability of former Jacksonville people who have made good in the world of business.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SEEKS BETTER PARKING PLAN

More Space Needed for Farmers Cars—About the Square—Road Improvement Talk.

At the meeting of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night most of the topics discussed were of a general character. Shortly after the routine business, a letter was read from President Rammelkamp making mention of the fact that William Mather Lewis, secretary of the navy league, is to deliver a lecture at Illinois College next Friday evening to which the public is invited. Prof. Lewis was at one time a member of the faculty of Illinois College and for a number of years has been at Lake Forest. He has become prominent within recent years in the work in which he is engaged and is a speaker of exceptional ability. It is likely that a business men's luncheon will be arranged in his honor.

Mayor Rodgers referred to the street paving work which is in progress and suggested that it would be well for every property owner to go out on South Main street and inspect the tar and pavement there while the construction work is in progress. The question of providing more space for parking automobiles in the business district was brought up by W. J. Brady, and Mr. Rodgers referred to the plan of concreting a space on the outer edge of Central park adjacent to the street paving for this purpose, and said that when the matter was mentioned several persons had objected.

The directors were unanimously of the opinion that something should be done to increase the parking space, as the number of cars which came to the city, especially on Saturday, is constantly increasing, and lately it has happened frequently that drivers have been unable to find a suitable place to park their cars. There was talk of the feasibility of renting Mrs. W. S. Jones' lot on East Court street for this purpose and whether or not this is done, the directors believe that some additional provision should be made for car drivers.

From this subject the discussion drifted to the advantage of marking automobile trails thru the county and in co-operating in making the roads approaching the city passable all the season thru. There are a number of cities and towns that have raised special funds to aid the farmers in putting roads into condition. It is realized that this is one of the most practical projects which can be undertaken, and with good roads during the winter season, the number of people who come to the city to visit the stores will be materially increased.

President John T. Boone referred to the matter of railroad crossings, a number of which are in very bad condition, and he was of the opinion that the city had sometimes been too lenient in compelling the roads to act when complaints were filed. Other matters also of a general character were discussed before the meeting adjourned. Secretary Weber has a plan for a special campaign for road betterments and trail marking to be done next spring.

NEWTON BEERS PRESENTS "THE SHEPHERD AND THE KING"

Characterization in Monologue of a Powerful and Picturesque Bible Play Under Auspices of Odd Fellows Lodge.

A large and enthusiastic audience gathered at Illini No. 4, I. O. O. F. lodge hall last evening to enjoy a monologue presentation by Newton Beers of his biblical play, "The Shepherd and the King". It is doubtful if any one who went had any idea of the great treat to be offered by the talented gentleman. The play is divided into four acts:

David meets Goliath. Scene—Camp of Saul in the vale of Elah. The Song of Victory. Scene—The court before Saul's palace.

The Covenant of Jonathan and David. Scene 1.—David's house, Hebron. Scene 2.—The column of Ezel.

The Promise of Friendship, Love and Truth. Scene 1.—Camp of Saul on Gilboa; scene 2, The Crypt of Kings.

All the persons prominent in the events mentioned were ably impersonated by the wonderfully gifted speaker. The tremendous might of Goliath, the Phillistine Giant; the calm, confident tones of David; the wrath and anger of Saul; the confiding words of the devoted Jonathan; the tender words of Michal, David's wife; of Lydia, wife of Jonathan and Merab, daughter of Saul; all these and many others were so faithfully and capably represented that one had but to shut his eyes and he could easily imagine each one before him expressing the sentiments of love, jealousy, hatred, defiance, entreaty and all the emotions incident to the wonderful drama and tragedy combined.

COMMENCE WORK AT ONCE.

RETAINS FAITH IN CAR.
John Hurrelbrink of Merritt was in Jacksonville Tuesday and drove about the city with J. F. Claus in the Willys-Knight car of the latter. Mr. Hurrelbrink was in the Priest & Claus Overland at the time of the accident near Merritt, but did not have his faith in the car shaken and later purchased an Overland of Mr. Claus.
